to change the world and our future*

A photograph of several female sprinters in various colored uniforms (red, yellow, green, black) starting a race on a reddish-brown track. They are in a low, powerful starting crouch, leaning forward with their arms extended. The background is a blurred crowd of spectators in a stadium. A semi-transparent dark grey horizontal band is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text.

A group of children, some with physical disabilities, are participating in a Paralympic event. They are wearing red shirts with the text "2000 Days to Go!!" and "The 2000 Paralympic Games". One child in the foreground is wearing a blue headband and a red shirt. Another child is wearing a white headband and a red shirt. They are standing on a wooden floor, and a group of children in blue shirts is visible in the background. The text "Unity in Diversity" is overlaid in the center of the image.

Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games venue finalized

Dr. Tamas Ajan President and Attila Adamfi Director General visited the host city of the 2020 Olympic Games. Meetings and discussions focused on the weightlifting venue and as a conclusion the Tokyo International Forum has been identified as the venue for the Olympic competitions, located in the very heart of the city.

Necessary venue reconstructions have been coordinated with TOCOG and confirmed by Mr. Yoichi Masauze, Governor of Tokyo Metropolitan Government.

Plans of the future Olympic Village has been also presented.

Beside the meetings with TOCOG, IWF representatives participated at the 50th Anniversary Reception of the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Games where among others they met the famous weightlifter Yoshinobu Miyake who won the first Gold Medal for Japan at the 1964 Olympic Games.
