

XL INTERNATIONAL TOURNAMENT "MANUEL SUAREZ IN MEMORIAM"
CLASSIFICATION TO THE XXIV CENTRAL AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN GAMES
"SAN SALVADOR DEL 2023"

INVITATION

Havana, Cuba, November 19, 2021

Dear Colleagues: coaches, athletes You, technical officers, directors of the National Weightlifting Federations, receive a cordial and fraternal greeting on behalf of the Cuban weightlifting family and especially each of their families.

The Cuban Federation of Weightlifting (FCLP), has the pleasure of officially inviting the XL International Tournament "Manuel Suárez In Memoriam", this time it will be a Qualifying event for the XXIV Central American and Caribbean Games of 2023. The appointment will take place from March 13 to 20, 2022 in Varadero, Cárdenas city, Matanzas, Cuba

For the event, each participant must assume the costs of tickets, lodging, food, registration and internal transportation during the event.

The mercantile society CUBADEPORTES SA, a member of the organizing committee will be the governing body of all commercial processes such as accreditation, accommodation, food, transportation, as well as events and options associated tourism.

We await you once again on our beautiful island with the desire to hold an event at the height required by the international calendars of our great sport. On this occasion, the villa and host hotel will be located in one of the most beautiful sun and beach destinations in the world.

From Cuba we convey that it will be an honor to have your presence. We await you at the XL edition of the MANUEL SUAREZ IN MEMORIAM International Tournament, Varadero 2022 with the warm hospitality that characterizes us.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. C. Jorge Luis Barcelán Santa Cruz
President of the Organizing Committee and FCLP

