

Summary

Development and Education Commission Meeting 23rd September 2021

Mr. José Quinones, Chairman of the IWF Development and Education Commission welcomed and introduced all participants.

The summary of 2021 Development and Education Program was presented. After the presentation and considering the fact that many Federations have not been able to utilize the funds until now because of new covid waves and cancelation of events, the members agreed that they will recommend the IWF Executive Board to approve to use the funds of 2021 until end of February 2022.

The participants also discussed a presentation prepared for the Congress in December. It was suggested to prepare new guidelines for the IWF and IOC Development Program and the members are invited to send their suggestions, recommendations.

Members have been informed that the EB approved seminars regarding the new constitution which are planned in different languages with the independent members.

The meeting ended with a proposal to have a next meeting before the Congress in December 2021.
