

RIO 2016 OLYMPIC GAMES

Qualification System

Summary of improvements

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

Process

- IOC sent QS Principles and Guidelines to IWF
- IWF Executive Board approved the draft QS (October 2013)
- IOC Executive Board approved the Final QS (February 2014)
- IWF published the Final QS to all Member Federations

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

- Same structure as for London 2012 Olympic Games
- Combination of Team and Individual qualification
- Some improvements

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

Special Anti-Doping Regulations

- in case of multiple positive cases the IWF may:
 - withdraw one or two quota places
 - stop participation of the NOC / MF

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

Obligatory participation

- athletes of qualified countries and Host Country must participate at minimum 2 (two) Qualification Events

- athletes invited by the Tripartite Commission (wild card) must participate at minimum 1 (one) Qualification Event

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

More Qualification Events

- 2014 Commonwealth Games
- 2014, 2015 IWF World Championships
- 2014 Asian Games
- 2014, 2015, 2016 IWF Grand Prix
- 2015 Pan-American Games
- 2015 Pacific Games
- 2015 IWF Junior World Championships
- 2016 Continental Qualification Events

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

Main Qualification (Team)

- 2014 and 2015 IWF World Championships
- 2016 Continental Qualification Events

Calculation of the Team Classification

- The best 4 (four) women / best 6 (six) men athletes' results will be considered for the Qualification Team Classification

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

Individual Qualification

- 8 men and 7 women places

Host Country (BRA) Places

- 3 men and 2 women ensured (but part of Main Qualification first)

Tripartite Commission Places

- 6 men and 4 women places (IOC rule on eligible NOCs)

Reallocation (exact ranking, objective rules)

QUALIFICATION SYSTEM

Weightlifting

Please check the
Qualification System!

SEE YOU IN RIO!