Biography Information

Given &amp; Family Name:	Richárd Oláh
Role in IWF (since):	Sport Administrator since November 2022
Functions:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Drafting and coordinating official correspondence</li><li>• Carrying out administrative tasks, including updating and maintaining website content</li><li>• Assisting in the organization of competitions and related activities</li><li>• Communicating with Member Federations</li></ul>
Professional Experience:	I began my career in 2015 at Budapest Airport, working in ground handling and as a ticket sales agent, gaining strong experience in customer service, operational coordination, and working in a fast-paced international environment. In addition, I worked in retail at the airport, including for a premium fashion store, enhancing my communication and client-focused approach. In 2020, I was selected by the Polish national airline and successfully completed cabin crew training, receiving the official certificate. I later held administrative roles in the logistics sector, further developing my organizational and office management skills. These experiences have contributed to my strong administrative, coordination, and service-oriented background, which I apply in my current role as Sport Administrator at the International Weightlifting Federation (IWF).
