Ethics and Disciplinary Code

A Introduction

1. This Ethics and Disciplinary Code is to be read in conjunction with the EDC Procedural Rules. This Ethics and Disciplinary Code and the EDC Procedural Rules are together referenced as the EDC Rules.

B Applicability of the EDC Rules

2. The EDC Rules shall apply to:
 - (a) all National Federation Members, Continental Federations and Regional Federations;
 - (b) The board members, directors, officials, employees and agents of National Federation Members; officers and employees of the Federation; Executive Board Members; IWF Commission Members; IWF Committee Members; IWF staff and candidates to these positions (collectively referred to herein this Ethics and Disciplinary Code as Officials);
 - (c) Athletes involved in IWF competitions;
 - (d) Coaches, trainers and other athlete support personnel involved in IWF competitions;
 - (e) Referees, judges and officials involved in IWF competitions;
 - (f) Former officials, coaches, athletes, judges, referees, trainers, and athlete support personnel previously involved in IWF competitions;
 - (g) IWF stakeholders; and
 - (h) Any other person or organisation who agrees to be so bound, or at any time becomes so bound on or after the Effective Date, including but not limited to consultants and contractually-connected persons and organisations representing or serving the Federation.
3. The EDC Rules are effective upon their entry into force; the EDC Procedural Rules apply to any procedures initiated after their entry into force.
4. The Ethics and Disciplinary Commission's jurisdiction is anchored in the IWF's Constitution; the Ethics and Disciplinary Commission shall have the authority to adjudicate and determine measures and sanctions in case of any violation of the EDC Rules but also of any other provisions referred to it under the Constitution. The Ethics and Disciplinary Commission shall not have jurisdiction over doping-related matters arising under the Anti-Doping Rules.

5. The Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall apply to infringements that have occurred upon its entry into force but also prior to its entry into force, if the alleged breach constituted a punishable act or omission under the any disciplinary by-laws at the time of the alleged infringement and if those provisions are more favorable to the perpetrator of the facts. Otherwise, the version of the ethics or disciplinary rules in force at the time of the infringement shall apply.
6. The application and enforceability of this Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall not be limited or affected simply because a person or organisation bound by it is also bound by other rules or policies relating to ethics and ethical and proper conduct.
7. The EDC Rules govern every subject to which the text or the meaning of its provisions refers. The applicable law in case of lacunae in this Ethics and Disciplinary Code is Swiss law along with the general principles of law.
8. The EDC Procedural Rules shall be amended by the Executive Board in accordance with rule 34.3 upon proposal or consent of the Ethics and Disciplinary Commission. The amendments will then come into effect on the date specified by the Executive Board and as recommended by the Ethics and Disciplinary Commission. The Ethics and Disciplinary Code, which also forms integral part of the IWF's Constitution, can only be amended as provided in the Constitution.
9. In case of conflict between the EDC Procedural Rules and the Constitution, the EDC Procedural Rules shall prevail. In case of conflict between the Ethics and Disciplinary Code and the Constitution, the Constitution shall prevail.

C IWF Ethics and Disciplinary Code

Goals of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code

10. The Ethics and Disciplinary Code aims at safeguarding the integrity of weightlifting at an international level and defines the core values for conduct both within the IWF but also with external parties. It does so by implementing the Governance Principles of:
 - (a) Democracy;
 - (b) Transparency;
 - (c) Accountability;
 - (d) Fair play;
 - (e) Sportsmanship; and
 - (f) Clean sport.

General Obligations of Good Conduct and Ethics

11. Any person or organisation bound by the EDC Rules has a personal duty and responsibility to ensure that they do take all necessary steps to understand and comply with the provisions of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code that apply to the person or organisation.

12. Any person or organisation bound by this Ethics and Disciplinary Code will violate or breach the Ethics and Disciplinary Code in any of the following circumstances:
- (a) If the person or organisation fails to comply with an applicable provision of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code or fails to cooperate truthfully and in good faith with the EDC at all times and regardless of whether they have been involved in a particular matter in any role;
 - (b) If the person or organisation assists or is complicit with any other person in relation to a breach of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code; or
 - (c) if the person or organisation conceals or intentionally fails to report a breach or violation of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code by any other person or organisation bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code.
13. Any person or organisation bound by this Ethics and Disciplinary Code must at all times:
- (a) comply with all applicable rules, including – but not limited to - the Governance Principles and the fundamental principles of Olympism;
 - (b) act in accordance with the highest standards of integrity and honesty;
 - (c) not engage in any conduct which is detrimental to, brings into disrepute or is materially inconsistent with the best interests or welfare of the Federation, the Sport, the Olympic Movement, the members of the Federation as a collective or the person or organisation concerned; and
 - (d) not engage in any conduct which amounts to harassment or discrimination of any kind against any person.

Specific Obligations of Good Conduct and Ethics

14. Duty of confidentiality: Confidential information received by any person or organisation bound by this Ethics and Disciplinary Code – and particularly an Official – in the exercise of his functions remains the property of the Federation and shall not be disclosed unless explicitly permitted by the Executive Board or such information violates principles of the Constitution and the EDC Rules. In the latter case, such information should be disclosed through the established channels under the EDC Rules. Such obligation is not terminated with the termination of any relationship that binds such a person or organisation to this Ethics and Disciplinary Code.
15. Duty to report breaches of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code: A person or organisation bound by this Ethics and Disciplinary Code – and particularly an Official – shall inform, in writing, the IWF Ethics and Disciplinary Commission Secretariat of any infringements of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code as soon as they become aware of them.
16. False reporting of breaches of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code: Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall not make any report of actual or suspected breaches under the Ethics and Disciplinary Code where (a) the report is knowingly false or knowingly incorrect; or (b) the person or organisation impersonates any other person or organisation in the making of the report.

17. Conflicts of interests: Officials shall not perform their duties in case of an existing or potential conflict of interest. A conflict of interest arises if a person bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code has, or appears to have, secondary interests that could influence his ability to perform his duties in an independent manner. Secondary interests include, but are not limited to, gaining any advantage for the persons bound by this Code themselves or other, related parties. Conflicts of interest shall be immediately disclosed and notified to the organisation for which the person bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code performs his duties.

Before being elected, appointed or employed, all Officials shall disclose any relations and interests that could lead to situations of conflicts of interest in the context of their prospective activities. They must use due care and diligence in fulfilling their functions of office.

18. Undue commission: Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall not accept, give, offer, promise, receive, or request commission for themselves or third parties for conducting business in connection with their duties, unless so covered by a valid and legal commercial agreement.
19. Abuse of position: Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall not abuse their position in any way, especially to take advantage of their position for private aims or gains. Officials bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall never attempt to improperly influence the outcome of any official decision.
20. Public statements of a defamatory nature: Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code are forbidden from making any public statements of a defamatory nature towards the Federation and/or towards any other person or Organisation bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code in the context of IWF events. Officials bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall refrain from making any public statement (including in the media or social media) in respect or in connection with the Federation, its Members, the Sport, the Olympic Movement any Athlete or Official of the Federation without the express permission of the President or the Executive Board.
21. Threats, harassment and sexual abuse: Threats, the promise of advantages, coercion and all forms of sexual abuse, harassment and exploitation are prohibited. Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code (a) shall protect, respect and safeguard the integrity and personal dignity of others; (b) shall not use offensive gestures and language in order to insult someone in any way or to incite others to hatred or violence; (c) must refrain from all forms of physical or mental abuse, all forms of harassment, and all other hostile acts intended to isolate, ostracise or harm the dignity of a person.
22. Acceptance and offering of an undue advantage: Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall not accept, give, offer, promise, receive, request or solicit any personal or undue pecuniary or other advantage in order to obtain or retain business or any other improper advantage to or from anyone within or outside the Federation. It is immaterial whether these offences were committed directly or indirectly through, or in conjunction with, third parties. In particular, persons bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall not accept, give, offer, promise, receive, request or solicit any personal or undue pecuniary or other advantage for the execution or omission of an act that is related to their official activities and is contrary to their duties or falls within their discretion.

23. Misappropriation or misuse of funds: Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code – and particularly Officials - shall not misappropriate or misuse funds of the Federation or any of its Members, whether directly or indirectly through, or in conjunction with, third parties. Persons bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall refrain from any activity or behaviour that might give rise to the appearance or suspicion of a breach of this article.
24. Manipulation of competitions: Persons and organisations bound by the Ethics and Disciplinary Code shall not be involved in the manipulation of competitions, and shall immediately report to the IWF Ethics and Disciplinary Commission Secretariat any approach in connection with activities and/ or information directly or indirectly related to the possible manipulation of a competition.

Measures and Sanctions

25. After determining that a violation of the Ethics and Disciplinary Code has been established, and except where a sanction is expressly provided for, the IWF Ethics and Disciplinary Commission Secretariat may impose any of the following measures and sanctions or a combination of several such measures and sanctions:
- (a) Reprimand;
 - (b) Suspension;

27. Unless otherwise provided below, violations of the Specific Obligations of Good Conduct and Ethics shall in principle be sanctioned with an appropriate fine to be determined by the Ethics and Disciplinary Commission as well as a ban on taking part in any activity related to the sport of weightlifting for a minimum of two (2) years.

30. Any person or organisation bound by this Ethics and Disciplinary Code who is suspended or declared ineligible following an Ethics and Disciplinary Commission decision shall automatically be considered suspended by all Continental Federations and National Federation Members of the IWF.

Rules Relating to Sanctions and their Determination

31. Unless otherwise provided in the Constitution and the Ethics and Disciplinary Code, the IWF Ethics and Disciplinary Commission shall decide the scope and duration of any sanction.
32. The Ethics and Disciplinary Commission can decide, upon request by the relevant party, to suspend the sanction, for a probationary period from one (1) to five (5) years. In case of a new breach by such party within the probationary period, such period shall be automatically revoked and the original suspension will be added to the sanction imposed for the new breach.
33. When imposing a sanction, the IWF Ethics and Disciplinary Commission shall take into account all relevant factors in the case, including:
 - (a) the nature of the offence and all the surrounding circumstances;
